

I support this proposal in full. It should be passed as soon as possible. The prospect of having more committed amateurs who have entered the ranks over the past decade and have actually stayed with it will ensure a group of loyal and supportive individuals who will participate and bring a new level of enthusiasm and idealism to Ham radio.